Proceedings of the City Council.

SATURDAY EVENING, July 18, 1897.

Council met at 7 o'clock.

Present, His Honor, the Mayor, the Clerk, the City Marshal, the Captain of the Police and the rest.

Clerk read the minutes.

A petition was read from Messrs. Nixon & Kemp for a deduction in the amount of license demanded for their exhibition. The petition set forth that the affair was a great moral concern. It is a sort of a circus.

Mr. Vandegrift moved to lay the petition on the table.

Mr. Durham seconded the motion. Petition laid on the table.

Mr. Vandegrift stated that the bridge crossing South street, over Pogue's run, was in very bad repair, and suggested that the Street Commissioner be directed to advertise for proposals to repair it.

Mr. Locke, from Committee on Streets and Alleys, made a report carrying out Mr. Vandegrift's suggestions.

Mr. Durham moved that, as foot bridges were neglected, they be added.

Mr. Greene's contention that the bridge could be repaired more easily than it could be raised.

Replies directed to be proceeded with, not to exceed in amount twenty-five dollars.

Mr. English, from the committee on fire department, reported that the committee favor the suggestion of the Chief Fire Engineer with reference to the purchase of a new engine for Marion Company, No. 1. Mr. English supported his report in an able argument.

Mr. Dunlap opposed Mr. English's movement. The city was deeply in debt, and we should husband our resources. The gentleman had failed to convince him of the necessity of purchasing a new engine. He could not see the good reason of incurring another debt of $250. The fire companies ought to have a little more patience. They had been well treated. He did not envy their usefulness, but he was unwilling to incur another debt. We had better be just and pay our debts before we were generous.

Mr. Vandegrift was as much in favor of fire companies as any man; but he agreed with Mr. Dunlap. He moved to lay the report on the table.

Mr. Porter was exceedingly desirous to vote for the purchase of a new engine, but at the present time, unless it could be shown that a portion of the city debt could be sunk, he should oppose the report.

City Engineer reported in favor of the following bids for street improvements: Michigan between East and New Jersey streets to John Kellier; Washington street between Tennessee and West Chester streets; Delaware, between North and St. Clair, and Michigan between North and Mississippi to Martin Coyer and East street between Washington and South streets to Condit.

On motion of Mr. Locke it was ordered that the City Engineer be directed to exercise his judgment in letting these bids.

Mr. offered a resolution to the effect that certain parties with whom Andrew Wallace had contracted for horse should be paid in money. Lost Mr. Dunlap offered a resolution appropriating to Mr. Tarkington $150, for brick work done at the hospital. Carried.

Mr. Guisendorf offered a resolution instructing the City Engineer to contract for two foot bridges across the arm of the Canal in a locality where he indicated they were absolutely needed. Carried.

Mr. Locke offered a resolution about the school houses in the Fourth Ward. Referred.

Mr. Fletcher offered a petition for improvements on Delaware street, between North and Parker streets. Referred.

Mr. Locke moved that the hog ordinance be taken up.

Mr. Durham seconded the motion.

Mr. Vandegrift moved that the Council adjourn.

Mr. Porter said he would vote against the adjournment. Mr. North demanded the eyes and nose on Mr. Locke's motion.

Council refused to take the ordinance from the table.

Mr. Locke offered an ordinance to prevent the running at large of unmuzzled dogs. The sum of 50 cents was under the ordinance, to be allowed for each dog killed.

Mr. Durham declared himself against the dogs. About one hundred men rallied outside every morning. There was not a dog in town that was more than three years old. He had seen dogs in his end of the town fast to one another. He had seen the dogs fight and kill one another. He was in favor of the whole canine species. If the officers would do their duty there would be no necessity for Mr. Locke's ordinance.

Mr. Durham thought there were more worthless dogs in town than there was any need for.

Mr. McNabb owned a dog and he thought more than he did of a watchman; and he hoped the ordinance would not pass.

Mr. Guisendorf moved in favor of the ordinance but thought the dogs ought to have no need for.

Mr. Vandegrift thought it was a mean business to go around a killing dogs. He was opposed to the ordinance.

Mr. Greenfield moved that each citizen be authorized to kill all dogs found making a riot in the street.

Council refused to suspend the rules to read the ordinance a second time.

Resolved, That the City Clerk be directed to give two weeks notice in the Indiana State Sentinel, the Journal, the Volksblatt and Free Press that the Common Council of Indianapolis, together with the Assessors, will, at their stated meeting on the 8th day of August, 1897, hear and decide all complaints in relation to the assessment roll returned by the City Assessor for the year 1897 and equalize the same as right and justice may require.

Advised.

Keep Cool.—E. G. Ward at his tailoring and furnishing establishment, No. 3, west Washington street, has a new notion for gentlemen's summer wear, as convenient and handy as a "pocket in a shirt." The article is a shirt and vest compounded, a shirt in fact, yet doing all the service of a vest, with a pocket and all its conveniences. For a neat and comfortable article during the extreme warm we pronounce it a plus ultra, or a disegno new, something "original" and "unique." Take a look at 'em.

For Soda Water, pure, cool, sparkling and bright, go to Motherhead & Cox's, Sentinel building, East Washington street. For fragrant oranges, genuine imported articles, and choice chewing tobacco, too, this firm is unrivaled in the city.

GREAT YIELD OF WHEAT.—On William Y. Wiley's farm of 14 acres, near Whitewater, wheat is now being harvested. It will yield from thirty five to forty bushels to the acre. Mr. Patterson is the farmer who has the skill and good luck to grow this crop.

It is the duty of every man having a family to keep his home while he is living. Refusing to do so is a crime, and the Agent of the Indianapolis Insurance Company, at the Book Stand, Union Depot, and insure your lives against accident by saving.

We are by the St. Louis Express that Mr. Durham has been elected.

For Clerk of Marion County,
GEORGE MOUAT.
For Commissioner 3d District,
THOMAS JOHNSON.

City Engineer reported in favor of the following bids for street improvements: Michigan between East and New Jersey streets to John Kellier; Washington street between Tennessee and West Chester streets; Delaware, between North and St. Clair, and Michigan between North and Mississippi to Martin Coyer and East street between Washington and South streets to Condit.

On motion of Mr. Locke it was ordered that the City Engineer be directed to exercise his judgment in letting these bids.

Mr. offered a resolution to the effect that certain parties with whom Andrew Wallace had contracted for horse should be paid in money. Lost Mr. Dunlap offered a resolution appropriating to Mr. Tarkington $150, for brick work done at the hospital. Carried.

Mr. Guisendorf offered a resolution instructing the City Engineer to contract for two foot bridges across the arm of the Canal in a locality where he indicated they were absolutely needed. Carried.

Mr. Locke offered a resolution about the school houses in the Fourth Ward. Referred.

Mr. Fletcher offered a petition for improvements on Delaware street, between North and Parker streets. Referred.

Mr. Locke moved that the hog ordinance be taken up.

Mr. Durham seconded the motion.

Mr. Vandegrift moved that the Council adjourn.

Mr. Porter said he would vote against the adjournment. Mr. North demanded the eyes and nose on Mr. Locke's motion.

Council refused to take the ordinance from the table.

Mr. Locke offered an ordinance to prevent the running at large of unmuzzled dogs. The sum of 50 cents was under the ordinance, to be allowed for each dog killed.

Mr. Durham declared himself against the dogs. About one hundred men rallied outside every morning. There was not a dog in town that was more than three years old. He had seen dogs in his end of the town fast to one another. He had seen the dogs fight and kill one another. He was in favor of the whole canine species. If the officers would do their duty there would be no necessity for Mr. Locke's ordinance.

Mr. Durham thought there were more worthless dogs in town than there was any need for.

Mr. McNabb owned a dog and he thought more than he did of a watchman; and he hoped the ordinance would not pass.

Mr. Guisendorf moved in favor of the ordinance but thought the dogs ought to have no need for.

Mr. Vandegrift thought it was a mean business to go around a killing dogs. He was opposed to the ordinance.

Mr. Greenfield moved that each citizen be authorized to kill all dogs found making a riot in the street.

Council refused to suspend the rules to read the ordinance a second time.

Resolved, That the City Clerk be directed to give two weeks notice in the Indiana State Sentinel, the Journal, the Volksblatt and Free Press that the Common Council of Indianapolis, together with the Assessors, will, at their stated meeting on the 8th day of August, 1897, hear and decide all complaints in relation to the assessment roll returned by the City Assessor for the year 1897 and equalize the same as right and justice may require.

Advised.

Keep Cool.—E. G. Ward at his tailoring and furnishing establishment, No. 3, west Washington street, has a new notion for gentlemen's summer wear, as convenient and handy as a "pocket in a shirt." The article is a shirt and vest compounded, a shirt in fact, yet doing all the service of a vest, with a pocket and all its conveniences. For a neat and comfortable article during the extreme warm we pronounce it a plus ultra, or a disegno new, something "original" and "unique." Take a look at 'em.

For Soda Water, pure, cool, sparkling and bright, go to Motherhead & Cox's, Sentinel building, East Washington street. For fragrant oranges, genuine imported articles, and choice chewing tobacco, too, this firm is unrivaled in the city.

GREAT YIELD OF WHEAT.—On William Y. Wiley's farm of 14 acres, near Whitewater, wheat is now being harvested. It will yield from thirty five to forty bushels to the acre. Mr. Patterson is the farmer who has the skill and good luck to grow this crop.

It is the duty of every man having a family to keep his home while he is living. Refusing to do so is a crime, and the Agent of the Indianapolis Insurance Company, at the Book Stand, Union Depot, and insure your lives against accident by saving.

We are by the St. Louis Express that Mr. Durham has been elected.

For Commissioner 3d District,
THOMAS JOHNSON.

Proceedings of the City Council.

SATURDAY EVENING, July 18, 1897.

Council met at 7 o'clock.

Present, His Honor, the Mayor, the Clerk, the City Marshal, the Captain of the Police and the rest.

Clerk read the minutes.

A petition was read from Messrs. Nixon & Kemp for a deduction in the amount of license demanded for their exhibition. The petition set forth that the affair was a great moral concern. It is a sort of a circus.

Mr. Vandegrift moved to lay the petition on the table.

Mr. Durham seconded the motion. Petition laid on the table.

Mr. Vandegrift stated that the bridge crossing South street, over Pogue's run, was in very bad repair, and suggested that the Street Commissioner be directed to advertise for proposals to repair it.

Mr. Locke, from Committee on Streets and Alleys, made a report carrying out Mr. Vandegrift's suggestions.

Mr. Durham moved that, as foot bridges were neglected, they be added.

Mr. Greene's contention that the bridge could be repaired more easily than it could be raised.

Replies directed to be proceeded with, not to exceed in amount twenty-five dollars.

Mr. English, from the committee on fire department, reported that the committee favor the suggestion of the Chief Fire Engineer with reference to the purchase of a new engine for Marion Company, No. 1. Mr. English supported his report in an able argument.

Mr. Dunlap opposed Mr. English's movement. The city was deeply in debt, and we should husband our resources. The gentleman had failed to convince him of the necessity of purchasing a new engine. He could not see the good reason of incurring another debt of $250. The fire companies ought to have a little more patience. They had been well treated. He did not envy their usefulness, but he was unwilling to incur another debt. We had better be just and pay our debts before we were generous.

Mr. Vandegrift was as much in favor of fire companies as any man; but he agreed with Mr. Dunlap. He moved to lay the report on the table.

Mr. Porter was exceedingly desirous to vote for the purchase of a new engine, but at the present time, unless it could be shown that a portion of the city debt could be sunk, he should oppose the report.

City Engineer reported in favor of the following bids for street improvements: Michigan between East and New Jersey streets to John Kellier; Washington street between Tennessee and West Chester streets; Delaware, between North and St. Clair, and Michigan between North and Mississippi to Martin Coyer and East street between Washington and South streets to Condit.
